SENIORS

Mrs. Miller

As the schools of today grow larger and more complicated every year, it becomes almost a quest to find a teacher willing to devote time and energy to supporting a class. The Class of '68 ended their search with the discovery of Mrs. Helen Miller. Mrs. Miller has guided the class through innumerable achievements and accomplishments.

Because of her outstanding co-operation, and understanding, the Class of '68 would like, on this page, to thank her for three great years!

Dave,
I'm glad we got to know each other this year. You're a crazy guy to know, sometimes, but I'm glad we're friends. Don't change too much & don't lose touch.
Be Good
Stay out of trouble
Love ya
Linda
"69"

Dave,
This year has been a lott of fun, knowing you & all. You're really a great guy - Stay that way.
Always,
LEO! Dawn.
69

Dave,
I regret today
don't know you as well as I'd like to -
but I do know you're a great guy and I wish you
all the best of luck in the coming years -
"69" Be good & take care
RULES! Donna
Inglehart

Dave, please study more
during your
senior year.
Please do
more homework
and be more responsible.
Good luck
in the coming years.
Study hard
and please
study more
senior year.

ABBEY SQUIRES

The purpose of the Abbey Squires is to promote better understanding of theatre arts in Westminster High School and throughout the community. Abbey Squires' activities include two annual presentations of plays in the "Globe West" theatre and several trips to theatre festivals and workshops at local colleges and various dramatic productions.

(Tenny)

Negatu

Tenny is A.F.S.'s foreign exchange student from Addis Abeba (the capitol of Ethiopia;. She arrived here August 28 in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Turner are her American family with whom she will reside until June, 1968. In her American family she has two sisters and one brother. In Ethiopia she lived with her social mother's family where she has six brothers and two sisters. They lived in Addis Abeba. Her maternal family lives far away from Addis Abeba, where she has a family of seven. Her father used to work for the Ministry of Communications, he is now retired.

When she leaves she plans to join the science section of the University of Addis Abeba. After graduation from college Tenny wants to become a high school teacher.

Westminster's 1967 football season proved once again that the Lion's brand of football is as rugged as can be found anywhere.

WHS opened the season starting 15 juniors and the "Young Lions" opposed teams rated 1st, 2nd, 7th, and 9th in the CIF, Southern Section.

One of the many highlights of the '67 season was the Anaheim game. WHS held the CIF champs to six points in an outstanding defensive battle.

The gridders' inside power proved to be the margin of victory over local rivals Huntington Beach and Marina.

The Oilers, after jumping off to an early lead, failed to keep up with Westminster's pace and fell by the wayside, 21-7.

Marina, led by quarterback Mike Tamiyasu, gave the Lions quite a scare but were finally subdued 34-19 thus allowing Coach Bill Boswell's crew to close the season on a winning note.

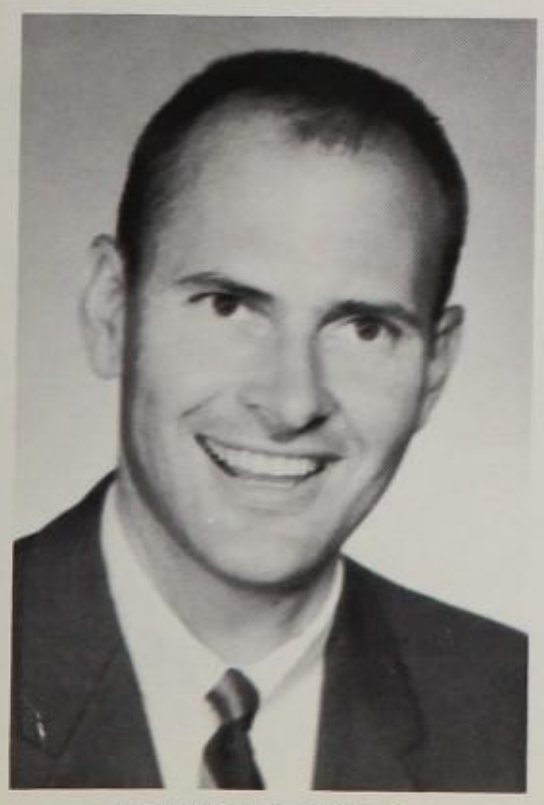
Varsity Cagers Finish Fifth; Team Led by Junior Powers and Sophomore Broderick



Head Basketball Coach

In what appears to be the best record ever posted by a Westminster basketball team, the 1967-68 Lions racked up ten wins in 24 outings.

Coach Benny Taylor's crew were, at one time, ranked tenth in Orange County with a record of 8-6. However, a late season tailspin sent the cagers into fifth place in the rugged Sunset League.

According to Coach Taylor, a pleasant surprise for the team was Jeff Powers, a high-scoring junior. Jeff scored a record 33 points against Santa Ana, eclipsing Dave Prather's record of 1966.

Throughout the season, the team was paced by seniors Jim Hogan, Jim Chaney, and Gary Shaw. Among the other members of the team, seniors giving strong bench support were Dan Berkoff, Terry Adkins, Rick Russell, Brad Young and Allen Zimm.

Underclassmen Powers, Dan Broderick, Dave Delfs and John Hogan added punch to the squad promising brighter years ahead.

Action '68

Coach Taylor sits in disappointment following second Huntington Beach loss in the Oilers gym.

Captain Jim Hogan scores on a driving layup during first round win over Western.

Junior sensation Jeff Powers scrambles after loose ball. Powers set the single game scoring record at 33 points against Santa Ana.

Pepsters' signs show support for the big Marina game, but Lions lost 66-40 against the powerful Vikings.

The winning free throw by Dan Broderick for the Lions win in double overtime over Newport, 76-74.

Grapplers Nail Down Second

Bottom row, (lt. to rt.) R. Membrilla, C. Meyerett, H. Lassak, G. Hansen, C. Suter, top row, Jim Cook, F. Prince, M. Pelissier, E. Lentz, G. Neumann, Coach Boyles.

"Disastrous" is the only word that could be expressed for the Sunset finals held on February 10. The Lion wrestlers, whose duel meet record was a perfect 7-0,went into the meet smelling victory and the Sunset championship.

But, upset followed upset, and the grapplers finished a disappointing fourth. Newport, who finished second in duel meets, took the finals title and the league trophy home with them.

Sensational transfer Paul Robinson went undefeated until the CIF finals, where he was upset by a wrestler he had previously beaten during the year.

Greg Hansen, wrestling at the 178 pound class, grabbed a third at the finals held at Fullerton State.

Again, upsets plagued the Lions as Chuck Suter, Dave Womack, and Bobby (Pineapple) Flores all were beaten in the first round.

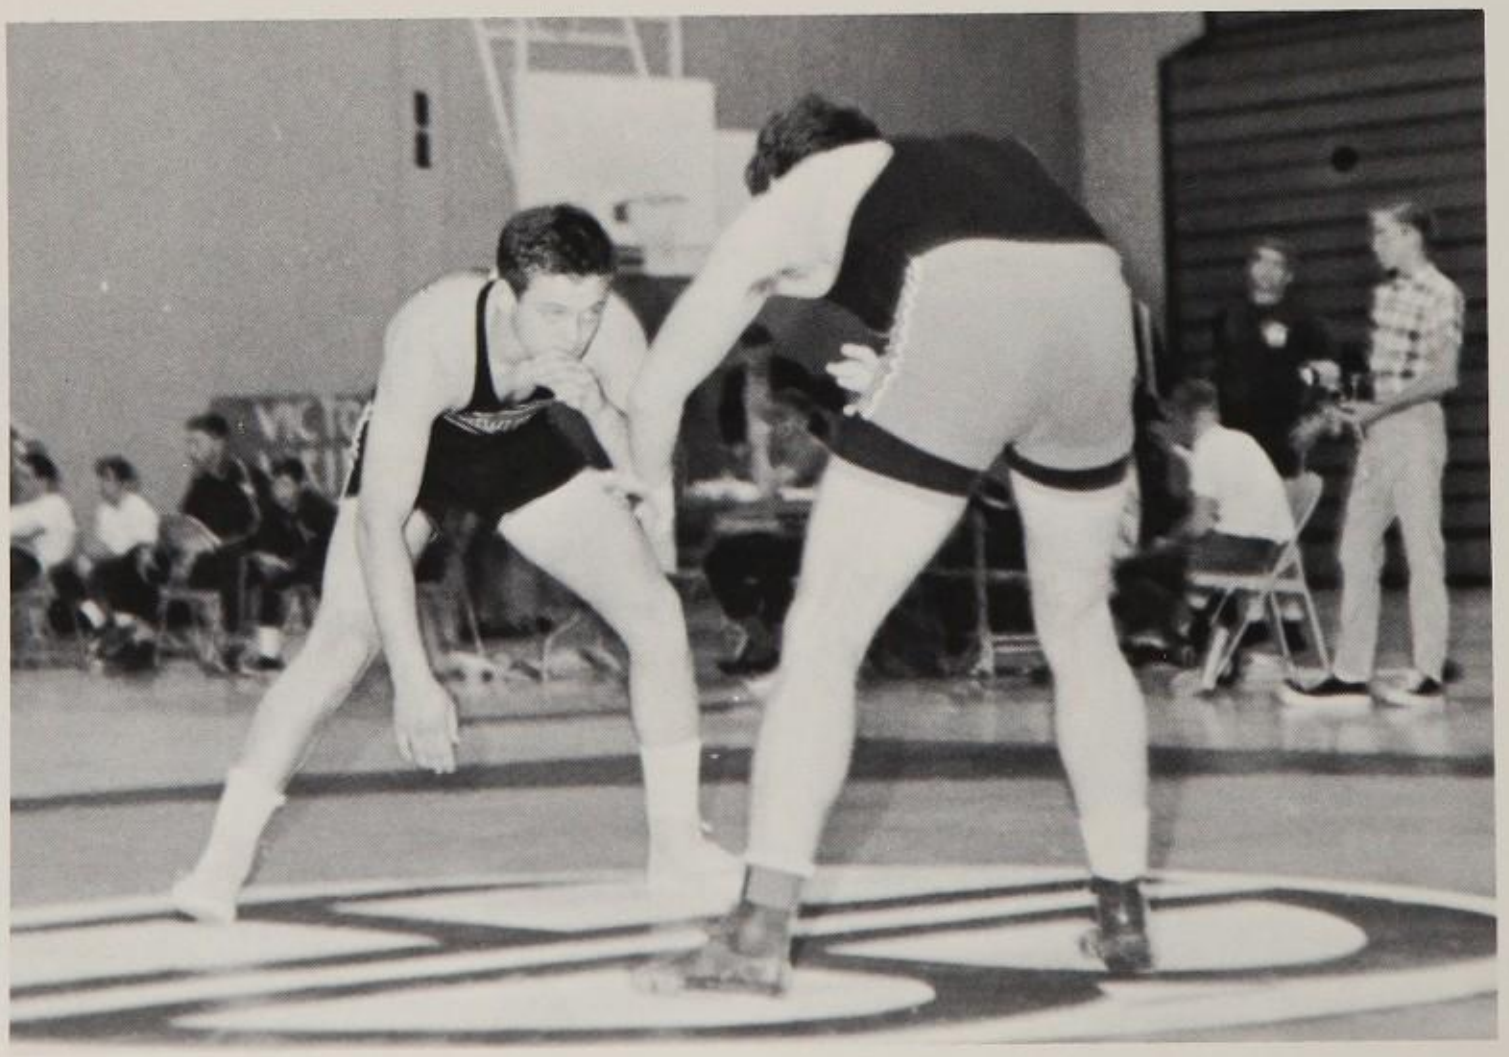
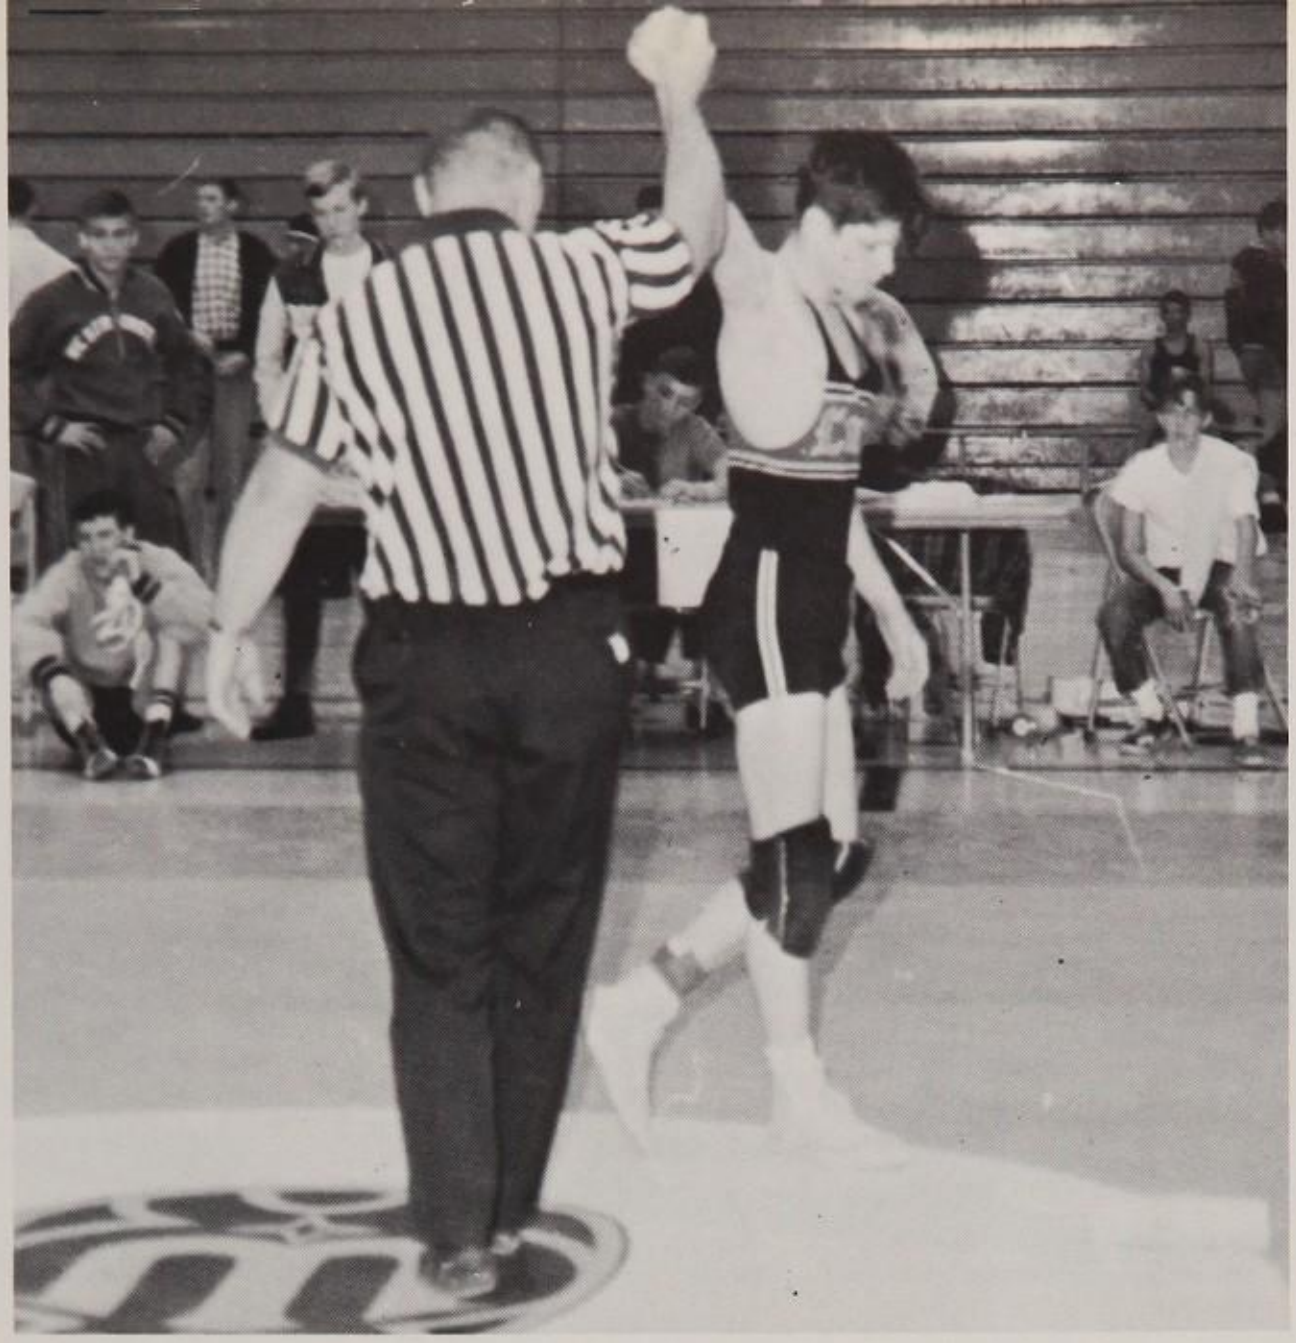
Only a junior, heavyweight Chuck Suter after takedown of Huntington Beach opponent.

Pleasing the crowd, Paul Robinson is shown at the Sunset League finals. Robinson later went on to win this match, the tournament, and eventually place second in the C.I.F.

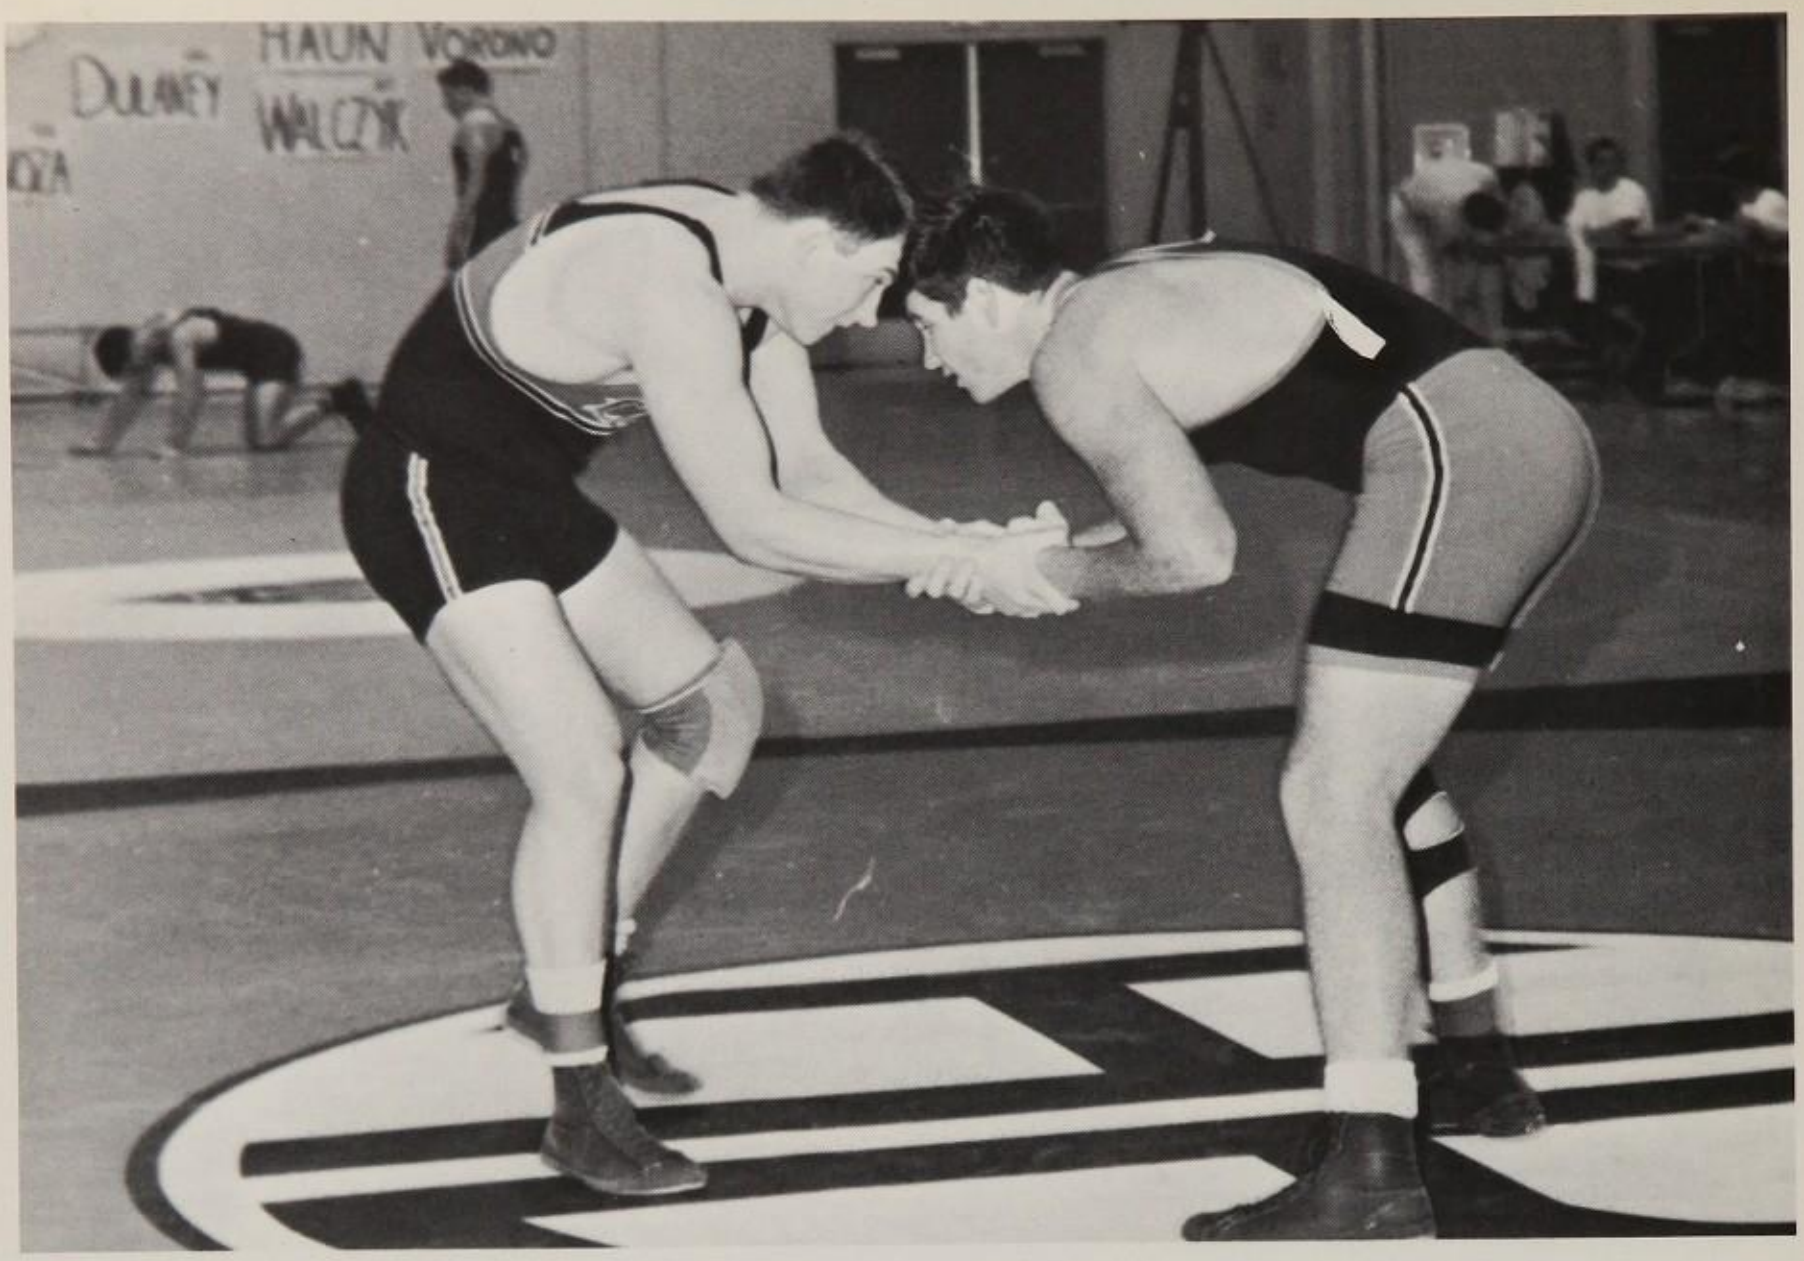


Harry "the neck" Lassak shows his quickness and tremendous takedown ability.



Truly a winner. David Wommack caught in a familiar pose.

A Dutch rub and eventual pin by Charles Meyerette. Meyerette shared time with Mike Pelissier this year in the 168 lb. class.



Showing intense concentration, Greg Hansen hustles for the takedown at the Sunset League Finals. Greg went on to represent WHS with a 3rd at the CIF Finals.

Paul Robinson clamps a pinning combination on his helpless opponent.

A yearbook is many things to those who put it together. It's crisis and joy, frustration and delight. It's the peak of victory and the valley of dispair. But through it all comes the comforting knowledge that a helping hand with a velvet touch can set any problem right. To you, Mr. William Seaman, our thanks. . . .the Staff.

Take perseverance, ability, courage, patience, wit and charm, brighten these with a summer smile, sprinkle them with a generous helping of freckles, and you've got the guiding light of student activities. . . .Miss Barbara Atwood.
